Thanks for caring for the boys

In Loving Memory of William "Bill" N. King

BILL KING – Without Bill King’s heart and his dogged dedication as the board president in the mid 90’s Mountain Top Boys home could have easily folded. When the home ran completely out of money, Bill dug into his own pocket to pay staff salaries. Some of his friends wondered why.

Those who hold an organization together when times are tough never get the credit. We remember and will remain eternally thankful. The highest level of giving is when neither the giver nor the receiver is aware of the gift. For many years to come, boys will leave Mountain Top enriched through Bill’s legacy with no clue as to those courageous choices that our friend Bill made.

Thank you, Bill King.

Gifted people keep us going

Donnis Steele, our program director, has the unique skills to blend the right boys with the right house parents to make a HOME. We ultimately depend on his judgment for the success of MTBH.

Tom Long and Earl Pence construct much needed steps to the office.

Recently cleared ballfield/playground for the boys. Stump grinder at work in background.

Allen Harp and Burt Bridges review the chapel plans.

The BBQ was one of Mountain Top's best ever.

After all – it is all about the boys.

Our gifted and dedicated house parents, Geraldine and George Gregory talk with visitors during open house at the BBQ. They are obviously the key in Mountain Top making a difference in the lives of boys.

North Cobb Rotary has led the Mountain Top BBQ for 19 years. We are forever thankful to them.

Mel Stowers, president of North Cobb Rotary, leads the end of the line. Rotary finally gets to eat.

Calhoun 1st United Methodist provided desserts, Stan Carlson's slaw and the beans were provided by Annie Leonard.

Ol' buddies, Bonnie Sanford and Stan Carlson are joined by past MTBH program director Tony Redmon.
